Shanghai International Studies University (SISU) has launched the “Multilingual+” Initiative, a pioneering educational reform strategy preparing innovative professionals and future global leaders. Based on your understanding of “Multilingual+” as well as your future plan, please write an essay of about 500 words, in the foreign language you have mainly learnt in senior high school. Please do not repeat, in full or in part, the essay you wrote for your personal statement in Chinese.